(PAH) Mayor’s Report

- Met Doug DiPaola who runs a program that builds houses for veterans. PAH is going to recommend inviting Mr. DiPaola to a NV Mayors or BCLM meeting so others around the county can learn about this very worthwhile program. We are fortunate that we have so many volunteers in our community.
- DPW contact was signed this morning. The “Magnificent Seven” work hard to keep our community to the standards we all expect. PAH thanks them for their dedication and hard work.
- Putting together a program for Club 60 which will discuss Fraud and Scams Against Seniors. Chief Maalouf, Sherriff Saudino and Jaquia Sultana from Bank of New Jersey will be the speakers on October 14, 2016.
- PSEG will be replacing pipes and opening the roads though the end of the year. The Clerk’s office, the Police Department and the School will be providing updates as much as possible.
- Correspondence was received from a resident on South Avenue regarding the loss of trees in their neighborhood. This has been addressed by the Environmental Commission. The trees from the Borough Tree Bank will be planted in the area of South Avenue and Columbus Road.
